

International Encyclopaedia of Laws

Property and Trust Law - Outline

The Author

Table of contents

List of abbreviations

General Introduction

- §1. General background of the country
 - I. Geography
 - II. Cultural situation
 - III. Political system
- §2. Legal background of the country
 - I. Legal family or tradition
 - II. Relation and hierarchy between the sources of law
- §3. Introduction to the Law of Property and Trust
 - I. Historical origins and evolution
 - II. The concept of ownership
 - A. Unity and fragmentation
 - B. Immovable and real property (see also Part I)
 - C. Movable and personal property (see also Part II)
 - III. Estate and patrimony
 - A. Unity and fragmentation
 - B. Trust and fiduciary mechanisms (see also Part IV and V)
 - IV. Possession and title

Part I. Immovable Property and Real Property

Chapter 1. General classification

Chapter 2. Legal interests

Chapter 3. Equitable interests

Chapter 4. Limited interests

§1. Usufruct

§2. Building and planting rights

§3. Leasehold interests - chattels real (see also Part II)

§4. Emphyteusis and rent charge

§5. Use and habitation/occupation

§6. Easements and profits

§7. Licences

§8. Restrictive covenants

Chapter 5. Security interests (see also Part II, IV and V)

Chapter 6. Joint ownership

§1. Joint ownership of immovable property

I. In general

II. Co-ownership applied to apartment buildings

§2. Joint ownership of movable property

Chapter 7. Neighbourhood and urban problems

Chapter 8. Agrarian problems

Part II. Movable Property and Personal Property / Chattels

Chapter 1. General classification

§1. Tangible movable property and choses in possession

§2. Intangible movable property and choses in action

§3. Funds (capital; investment fund)

§4. Chattels personal and chattels real (see also Part I)

Chapter 2. Legal interests

Chapter 3. Equitable interests

Chapter 4. Security interests (see also Part I, IV and V)

Part III. Acquisition of Property Rights

Chapter 1. Transfer of property by contract inter vivos

Chapter 2. Transfer of property by death

Chapter 3. Possession

Chapter 4. Accession

Chapter 5. Appropriation

Chapter 6. Expropriation

Chapter 7. Insolvency

Part IV. Trust and Fiduciary Mechanisms

Chapter 1. Administration of property. Fiducia cum amico

Chapter 2. Security. Fiducia cum creditore (see also Part I, II and V)

Part V. Security

Chapter 1. Securities in immovable property (see also Part I and IV)

§1. Privileges, liens, charges

§2. Mortgage

Chapter 2. Securities in movable property (see also Part II and IV)

§1. Privileges, liens, charges

§2. Pledge

§3. Retention right, Compensation

§4. Delegation, Direct claim (possibility created by statute law to claim payment directly from the debtor of one's debtor)

Selected bibliography

Index