This document provides a detailed summary of compliance changes to Wolters Kluwer Traditional Beneficiary IRA documents

Detailed changes from 2025 to 2020

2025
(November 2025, COLA updates, IRS Ann. 2025-2, and US H.R. 517)

Form 5305-A and Form 5305

- Amended section 8.03, Definitions, to clarify how the phrase "SIMPLE IRA" is used throughout the document

Traditional Beneficiary IRA Disclosure Statement

- Amended the Right to Disclaim section to more closely follow the disclaimer rules found in IRC Section 2518
- Amended the Definitions section to reflect the same changes made to section 8.03 above
- Amended the State Laws subsection in the IRA Restrictions and Approval section to add "disclaimers" to the list of state laws that could impact a beneficiary IRA
- Amended the Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD) subsection of the IRA Distributions section to reflect the increased annual QCD limit as well as the increased once in a lifetime QCD limit for a split-interest entity
- Amended the Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs)-Generally section and several subsections under it, including the Time Period Rules subsection to, among other things, clarify when certain life expectancy tables can be used
- Amended several subsections under the RMD Rules for a Death that Occurred in 2019 or Earlier section, including changes to reflect that the five year rule is a rule that no longer applies and to remove references to an expired CARES Act exception
- Amended several subsections under the RMD Rules for a Death that Occurred in 2020 or Later section, including revisions to better explain the single life expectancy method and clarify that spouse beneficiaries may have multiple life expectancy options
- Amended the Estate and Gift Tax section to add cautionary language for beneficiaries who may want to disclaim all, or a portion, of a beneficiary IRA
- Amended the Disaster Tax Relief and Repayment of a Qualified Disaster Recovery Distribution section to note that disasters may be declared not only by the President, but also by state officials

2024
(November; 2025 COLA updates; final Internal Revenue Service (IRS) required minimum distribution (RMD) rule updates)

Form 5305-A and Form 5305

- Amended section 8.03, Definitions; clarified the references to "Beneficiary IRA"; noted that references to "IRA" and "traditional IRA" include an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) indicated to be a Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) IRA, and noted that references to "SIMPLE IRA" do not indicate a Roth Savings Incentive Match Plan for Employees (SIMPLE) IRA unless specifically stated
- Amended section 9.10, Distributions; added a NOTE advising IRA owners to seek the guidance of a tax or legal professional surrounding the taking of RMDs
- Added section 9.11, Beneficiary Default Election; this new section defines the default election in the event an eligible designated beneficiary does not elect an RMD method
