

Databases@Ovid

Ovid® offers premium research solutions from the world's leading publishers, providing access to over 100 core and niche database products. Designed to support efficient knowledge discovery across a broad range of disciplines, Ovid combines advanced features like natural language processing, customizable links, and sophisticated deduplication tools. These innovations ensure a seamless, user-friendly experience to meet the needs of researchers of all levels — from novice to advanced — across institutions of all kinds.

Why Databases@Ovid?

✓ Powerful search functionality

- Precision mapping technology delivers expert searches using controlled vocabulary, with Ovid Term Finder on select databases
- Refine and streamline search results with precision using advanced limiting tools

✓ Integrated database access

- Multi-file searching across databases, journals, and books simultaneously
- Customizable links to full-text resources through Links@Ovid for seamless navigation to your institution's full-text resources

✓ Search sharing and organization tools

- Effortless replication and sharing of complex search strategies
- Saved search functionality with options for AutoAlerts, delivering results via email or RSS feeds

✓ Enhanced efficiency

- Advanced deduplication tools to automatically eliminate duplicate results from search outcomes and alerts
- Quick database navigation with Ovid Jumpstarts

✓ Wide-ranging research support

- Covers essential disciplines including medicine, nursing, pharmacology, health sciences, life sciences, and more
- Easily integrates with institutional Ovid and non-Ovid resources for streamlined workflows

Experience the multi-database advantage of Ovid® — combining precision, speed, and flexibility on a seamless platform.
