

C.V. of Ms. Stacey Caywood

Bio

Ms. Caywood is a seasoned executive with extensive global experience who brings deep knowledge of the company, and a proven track record of successful leadership of the Wolters Kluwer Health and Legal & Regulatory divisions. Ms. Caywood has been CEO of the Wolters Kluwer Health division since 2020. Wolters Kluwer Health is a global provider of clinical technology, evidence-based solutions, research, and life-long learning for hospitals, healthcare organizations, clinicians, students, schools, libraries, payers, life sciences, digital health companies, and pharmacies. As CEO of Wolters Kluwer Health, Ms. Caywood led the further evolution and development of the division's healthcare solutions, ensuring medical and nursing professionals around the world can benefit from advanced clinical technology and evidence-based healthcare solutions.

In 2024, Ms. Caywood actively participated in the development of the 2025-2027 strategic plan of the Wolters Kluwer group. Ms. Caywood's deep understanding of international markets and expertise in solutions beyond healthcare further strengthen the company's strategic vision. Between 2010 and 2020, Ms. Caywood was CEO of the Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory division. In that role she led a strategic transformation across Europe and the U.S., returning the business to growth. Earlier in her career, Ms. Caywood held several leadership positions within Wolters Kluwer since 1992.

Ms. Caywood has extensive global experience, and she excels in business transformation, digital revenue growth, and innovation across legal, compliance, and healthcare markets. Her expertise spans strategy execution, business development, change management, new revenue stream creation, portfolio management, M&A, and operational excellence.

PERSONAL INFORMATION:

- Born in 1963 (United States of America)
- US nationality

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Wolters Kluwer Health division, 2020 - present

- Chief Executive Officer

Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory division, 2010-2020

- Chief Executive Officer

Wolters Kluwer, 1992 -2010

Various management and leadership roles of increasing responsibility within the Company:

- President, Wolters Kluwer Law & Business (U.S.), 2008-2010
- Vice President, Wolters Kluwer Law & Business (U.S.) Legal Profession Group, 2003-2008
- Vice President, CCH Business and Finance Group (1999-2003)
- Marketing and Sales Director, CCH Business and Finance Group (1996-1999)
- Product Manager roles: CCH On-line, Federal and State Tax Group (1992-1996)

OTHER CURRENT SIDE ACTIVITIES:

- Ms. Caywood is a Strategy Advisor for Park Square Capital.

AWARDS & RECOGNITION:

- 2021 Bronze Stevie® Award Winner – Female Executive of the Year (Business Products)
 - Recognized for leadership in navigating healthcare markets and supporting frontline workers during the COVID-19 pandemic

EDUCATION:

- Northwestern University, J.L. Kellogg School of Management, Chicago IL, Master of Business Administration (1991)
- Tufts University, Medford MA, Bachelor of Arts (1985)
