Wolters Kluwer launches Lippincott Nursing Advisory Board to elevate clinical excellence in India

Launched at ANEICON 2025, the initiative unites India's top nursing minds to shape the future of care through collaboration, innovation, and evidence-based practice

New Delhi, India – May 30, 2025 – Wolters Kluwer is proud to announce the launch of the Lippincott Nursing Advisory Board, a groundbreaking initiative committed to advancing nursing excellence, standardizing care, and enhancing patient outcomes through evidence-based knowledge and clinical decision support. Launched today at ANEICON, the largest nursing conference in India, this Advisory Board is driven by a commitment to continuous professional development and the 'Make it Better' mission of Wolters Kluwer (Lippincott Solutions).

The Lippincott Nursing Advisory Board brings together a distinguished panel of nursing leaders and experts from both academic and clinical practice settings. Their collective expertise will guide the evolution of Lippincott Solutions, ensuring that the tools and resources offered are aligned with the real-world challenges and aspirations of the nursing community. The board will play a pivotal role in advising on clinical and professional trends, offering insights into leadership challenges such as compliance, onboarding, and education, providing feedback on product development and messaging strategies, identifying and addressing knowledge and technology gaps, sharing perspectives on health economics, and encouraging data and information management for predictive intelligence and forecasts.

Commenting on this development, Ruchi Tushir, VP & General Manager, GGM India, at Wolters Kluwer, expressed, "We are incredibly excited about the launch of the Lippincott Nursing Advisory Board. This initiative represents a significant step forward in supporting the nursing community and enhancing patient care through collaboration and innovation. The insights and expertise of our Nursing Advisory Board will be invaluable in developing solutions that address the evolving needs of the healthcare industry."

This initiative is rooted in Wolters Kluwer's mission to "Make it Better" by fostering collaboration, innovation, and advocacy within the nursing profession. By creating a platform for dialogue and shared learning, the Lippincott Nursing Advisory Board aims to elevate the standards of care and support the professional growth of nurses across India. The launch of the board is timed to coincide with ANEICON, one of the country's most prominent nursing conferences, underscoring the importance of this endeavor within the broader healthcare landscape.
