UCC Filings and Searches

Whether you are looking to file UCC financing statements, UCC amendments, UCC fixture filings, or record real estate documents, we have the experience you can trust. Our dedicated teams at RASi are well-versed in the rules and standards set forth in Revised Article 9 (RA9) of the Uniform Commercial Code. RASi can also assist you with searching public records, including UCC liens, tax liens, judgment liens and many other recorded liens. Depending on the type of documents you are searching for, RASi will search the appropriate state and/or local indexes to ensure you are receiving up-to-date and accurate results.

Real Estate Documents

In addition to recording UCC financing statements and UCC fixture filings, RASi has assisted many clients with the recording of mortgages, deeds, leases, and many other types of real estate documents in local recording offices and agencies.

Litigation and Bankruptcy Searches

When it comes to finding and retrieving court records or performing litigation searches, look no further. We can provide you with search results for civil litigation, criminal litigation, and bankruptcy cases from the appropriate jurisdiction - whether at the federal, state, or local level. For years, RASi has performed court searches using the proper federal and state court indexing systems and can assist you in locating relevant case information. RASi will obtain docket information and can retrieve copies of petitions, motions, discharges, or other case-related documents. At RASi, we maintain a vast network of research specialists, who have tremendous experience in searching court indexes and providing comprehensive searches.

For all searches ordered through RASi, you will receive a comprehensive and easy-to-read report listing all records found that match your particular request.
