

American Society of Nephrology journals on Ovid®

Founded in 1966, the American Society of Nephrology (ASN) is dedicated to advancing kidney health through research, education, and advocacy. ASN supports a global community of nephrology professionals by promoting innovation, equity, and excellence in kidney care.

In collaboration with ASN, three essential journals — Journal of the American Society of Nephrology (JASN), Clinical Journal of the American Society of Nephrology (CJASN), and Kidney360 — are now published by Lippincott® on Ovid, delivering high-quality scientific findings that support kidney research, clinical practice, and education.

Why ASN journals on Ovid?

- Trusted kidney research & practice resources
Journals from one of the leading sources in advancing kidney health deliver original research, best clinical practices, clinical cases, and other insights that supports clinicians, researchers, educators, and students involved in kidney care.
- Comprehensive coverage across nephrology
Topics span clinical best practices, patient care innovations, research methodologies, epidemiology, health policy, and more — supporting professionals across nephrology subspecialties.
- Instant expansion options for your digital library
Choose titles a la carte or quickly enhance your nephrology content by adding all three titles in a convenient bundle — filling content gaps, and supporting institutional learning and research goals.
- Early access to research
Articles are available on Ovid ahead of print, ensuring timely access to the latest findings and developments in kidney medicine.
- Flexible access options
Enjoy dual access to full-text articles — on Ovid and directly via the JASN and CJASN journal websites (with organization IP verification) — ensuring seamless availability across platforms.
