Secure Digital Print

Designed for the
Compliance Driven and Regulated Marketplace

Wolters Kluwer Secure Digital Print offers a best-in-class digital print solution for securely printing, delivering and tracking sensitive documents for the insurance industry.

Secure Digital Print is a managed solution encompassing the entire printing, shipping and tracking process where security, timing and audit capabilities are mandatory. Our professional print team has a solid track record of processing, printing, delivering and tracking millions of sensitive documents for some of the biggest and most demanding financial institutions in the world and we can provide the same level of service and compliance to our insurance industry customers. We are compliant with statutory mailing and delivery methods, paramount in today's heavily regulated insurance marketplace.

Secure Digital Print is backed by powerful print technology, which includes a state-of-the-art, high-velocity Xerox Trivor printer that can fulfill even the most challenging time-sensitive print requirements. Furthermore, our industry leading digital and physical plant security gives our clients confidence that their sensitive documents will be managed in a secure, complaint manner. Whether you are looking to outsource your print needs across the enterprise or support individual lines of business, no other solution helps better manage this critical business need.

Client

Client digitally transmits document to us as a PDF via a secure transmission method. We employ best in class PKI encryption to protect our client's sensitive data and documents.

High-Velocity Printing

Immediately upon receipt, our fulfillment team prints documents utilizing the Xerox Trivor printer for real-time/JIT (just-in-time) printing.

Shipping

Documents are packaged and shipped in strict compliance with regulatory timing requirements and include tracking and audit capability.

Consumer

Consumer receives document package on time.

We specialize in secure print fulfillment and delivery services for financial institutions in highly regulated, compliance driven industries such as banking, securities and insurance, where timing and audit trail are critical. We have the industry's strongest security and PKI encryption / SOC2e on all facilities to protect our customer's information and documents.

- Meets regulatory requirements for timely document/disclosure delivery as well as audit trail and tracking capabilities on printed and shipped documents
- Same day print and ship capability with UPS, FedEx, USPS shipping options
