

Ovid® Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI) Collection

With the growing importance of equitable care delivery – especially notable in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic – it makes sense to expand your portfolio of content that discusses issues of healthcare disparities, culturally-sensitive care, and diverse staffing.

Available on the Ovid platform, this comprehensive package helps you offer easy access to relevant resources for educators, clinical managers, and others who are invested in building trust, ensuring diversity, and driving better outcomes for all patients.

Unique content package designed to help improve health equity and staff representation

Why health equity content from Ovid?

- Support your institution's efforts at improving health outcomes for the most disadvantaged communities
- Enable faculty to teach students to become more empathetic and socially conscious practitioners
- Fill gaps in health equity training resources for residency, medical, nursing, and allied health programs
- Help support special committees set up to address equity, equality, and race in teaching and practice
- Help build a more diverse staff throughout your institution

Key features of the collection:

- 24 online books from a wide variety of leading publishers such as Lippincott® and Oxford University Press
- Archives of 6 core Lippincott® journals in healthcare management, quality, and safety
- Content covering the issues of LGBTQ health, gender, sexism, race, ethnicity, disabilities, and other important social and cultural issues
- Suitable for faculty, education directors, clinical directors, students, residents, managers, and administrators
- Simultaneous searching of multiple resources using just one search query
- Precise, natural-language searching for quick information discovery
- Time-saving workflow tools such as inline abstracts, search results sorting and annotations, and more
