

Wolters Kluwer Daily Reporting Suite

The information you need, before you need it.

Daily Reporting Suite Includes:

- Antitrust Law Daily
- Banking and Finance Law Daily
- Labor & Employment Law Daily
- Health Law Daily
- Health Reform WK-EDGE
- Intellectual Property Law Daily
- Products Liability Law Daily
- Securities Regulation Daily
- TR Regulation Daily

Wolters Kluwer Daily News

Wolters Kluwer's daily news coverage combines decades of world-class editorial expertise with a keen focus on what's most important in the industry - delivering critical insights and in-depth analysis on everything from Healthcare and Intellectual Property to Labor & Employment, Securities & Banking, and much more. The Dailies have been crafted specifically with you, your business, and your clients' interests in mind - making it easy to stay ahead of the latest changes and capitalize on new opportunities every single day.

It's not just news. It's the right news.

- Includes full summary and analysis of federal and state cases that affect your practice
- Track law firms and organizations featured in the daily headlines with our "Who's in the News" feature
- Articles feature links to full text of source material (court decision, legislation, agency notice, testimony, etc.)
- All case summaries list the presiding judge and the names of the attorneys representing the parties
- Top blogs are featured each week to share insightful, intriguing, and entertaining posts in each practice area

24/7 access for a 24/7 world

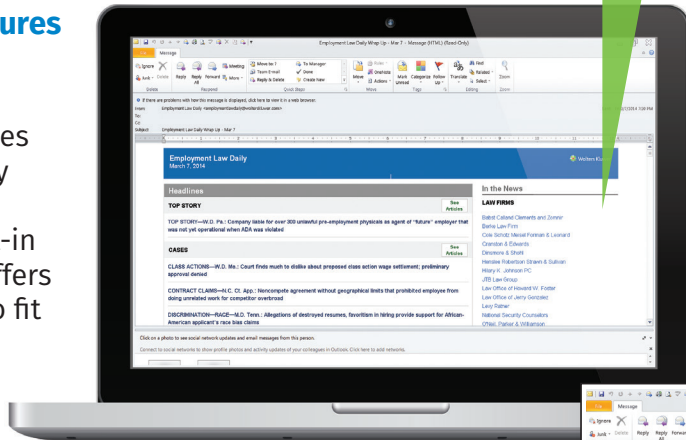

- Forward information to colleagues or clients with our built-in permissions policy
- Customize your daily email by topic and/or jurisdiction
- Receive breaking news alerts
- Save time with our synopsis feature that let's you easily discern if an article needs to be read in full
- Access all email links from any mobile device without being prompted for user name and password
- Search our archival database
- Browser view functionality, allowing you to click directly to the article through a new "Read More" link.

No prompts for log-ins/passwords

Enjoy seamless access to all links in your email, including on your mobile device, without being asked for a log-in/password.

Time-saving features

Share critical information with clients or colleagues using our uniquely designed email functionality. Built-in copyright policy offers added flexibility to fit your workflow.

Who's in the News

Track law firms and organizations in our "Who's in the News" feature.

Expert analysis

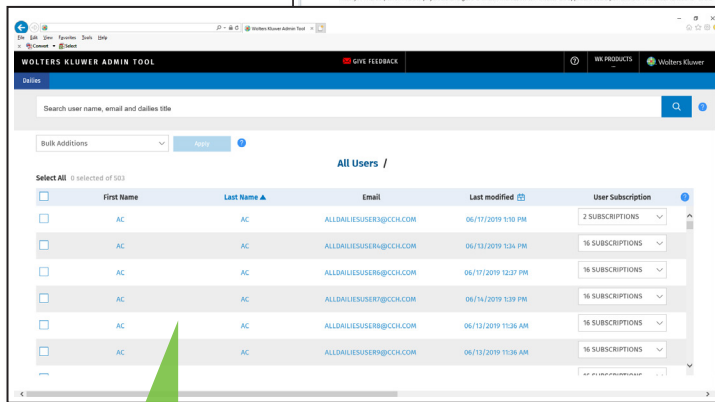

Each story includes expert analysis written by attorneys and subject matter experts. We also leverage advisory boards and other thought leaders to offer varying perspectives when warranted.

Insights you can use

Wolters Kluwer's attorney-editors are subject matter experts in their fields and do the work of identifying key developments, verdicts, and cases—with an emphasis on analyzing the winning strategies and giving you summaries with practical insights that can be leveraged—written with the expectation of real-world application.

Same-day reporting

Be the first to know when an important case breaks, new regulations are adopted, or groundbreaking legislation passes.

Dailies Administration Tool

Manage attorney subscriptions from one easy interface. Quickly add, edit, remove and report on new and existing users.

Customized content

Choose to receive only what's relevant to your specialty focus. News can be filtered by topic and/or jurisdiction.

Information that matters

Includes information on the people and firms involved in the news stories, details around the issues, the state of the law, the arguments and resolution, as well as a decision's ramifications.

Archived issues

All stories are located on our research platform and are fully searchable.

WoltersKluwerLR.com/store/DRS

When you have to be right