

Stay current with the all-new
Wolters Kluwer
Health Law Daily

Wolters Kluwer Health Law Daily

Wolters Kluwer Health Law Daily—a daily reporting service created by attorneys, for attorneys—delivers breaking news, court decisions, legislation, and regulatory developments.

It's not just news. It's the right news.

- Quick access to federal and state law developments
- Includes full summary and analysis of federal and state cases that affect your practice
- All case summaries list the presiding judge and the names of the attorneys representing the parties
- Track law firms and organizations featured in the daily headlines with our "Who's in the News" feature
- Articles include links to full text of source material (court decision, legislation, agency notice, testimony, etc.)
- Top blogs are featured each week to share insightful, intriguing, and entertaining posts in each practice area

24/7 access for a 24/7 world

- Forward information to colleagues or clients with our built-in copyright permissions
- Promote your firm with our preset reprint policy (for details, visit www.dailyreportingsuite.com)
- Customize your daily email by topic and/or jurisdiction
- Receive breaking news alerts
- Save time with mobile apps on your iPhone, iPad, Android or BlackBerry
- Access all email links from any mobile device without being prompted for username and password
- Search our archival database

Daily Reporting Suite Includes:

- Cybersecurity
- False Claims Act
- Fraud & Abuse
- HIPAA
- Life Sciences
- Medicaid
- Medicare
- And more....

Information that matters

Includes information on the companies and firms involved in the news stories, details around the issues, the state of the law, the arguments and resolution, as well as a decision's ramifications.

Time-saving features

Share critical information with clients or colleagues using our uniquely designed email functionality. Built-in copyright permissions offer added flexibility to fit your workflow.

Who's in the News

Track law firms and organizations in our "Who's in the News" feature.

Expert analysis

Each story includes expert analysis written by attorneys and subject matter experts. We also leverage advisory boards and other thought leaders to offer varying perspectives when warranted.

Insights you can use

Wolters Kluwer's attorney-editors are subject matter experts in their fields and do the work of identifying key developments, verdicts, and cases—with an emphasis on analyzing the winning strategies and giving you summaries with practical insights that can be leveraged—written with the expectation of real-world application.

No prompts for log-ins/ passwords

Enjoy seamless access to all links in your email, including on your mobile device, without being asked for a log-in/password.

Archived issues

All stories are located on our research platform and are fully searchable.

Same-day reporting

Be the first to know when an important case breaks, new regulations are adopted, or groundbreaking legislation passes.

Customized content

Choose to receive only what's relevant to your specialty focus. News can be filtered by topic and/or jurisdiction.

Mid-day alerts

When critical news breaks early in the day, you can choose to receive a mid-day alert.

Mobile access to federal and state law and regulatory developments, covering a wide range of topics.

Mobile app advantages

Subscribers using the mobile app get access to same-day news that covers breaking court decisions, legislative and regulatory developments. The mobile app allows customers to access timely updates on-the-go, including:

- Enjoy audio/text-to-voice functionality. Listen to your Health Law Daily on-the-go (available for iOS)
- Option to customize your home page and filter by top story, jurisdiction, topical area, or what's most popular
- Built-in copyright permissions to forward critical information to colleagues or clients with your commentary, using the app's email functionality
- Capability to store your favorites to a "favorites" folder, privately notate articles to a "notes" folder, and more

See what's being said about Wolters Kluwer Health Law Daily:

"WK is removing the 'licensing handcuffs' and stating unambiguously that lawyers are free to share content with colleagues and clients. Hallelujah!"
"...WK... focused more on customization of both content and delivery from the start than their competition have. They are clearly ahead of the entire market in embracing the need to allow lawyers to legally 'socialize' their content."

Jean O'Grady

Dewey B Strategic Blog

Contact us at 1-800-449-6435 or wkhealthlawdaily.com for more information.