
5MinuteConsult.com

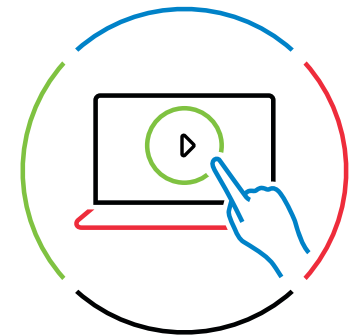

The fastest resource for finding answers to primary care clinical questions

5MinuteConsult's easy-to-navigate, relevant, synoptic approach to over 2,000 diseases and conditions found in outpatient primary care make this an essential resource for any busy family medicine or primary care provider. Subscribers to 5MinuteConsult.com have mobile and desktop access to the high-yield diagnostic and therapeutic clinical information generations of family medicine and primary care providers know and trust.

5MinuteConsult is edited by leading providers and teachers in Family Medicine, and each year, over 1,000 MDs, DOs, NPs, and PAs who practice family medicine and primary care write and update 5MinuteConsult content. Our authors reflect the various settings in which primary care is practiced: teaching hospitals, community hospitals, large or small group and solo private practices, and the military. 5MinuteConsult is Family Medicine.
