AI in CCH[®] Tagetik

Welcome AI onto the finance team

Unprecedented efficiency. Powerful insights. Pinpoint accuracy. AI in CCH Tagetik is the ultimate assistant to finance teams.

When put to task, our AI takes care of time-consuming manual processes and identifies trends from deep within your universe of enterprise data. When you need direction, the best path forward is crystal clear. To keep you in control, our AI doesn't gatekeep. Its glass box approach gives you the authority to check, vet, and accept the AI's work. Your AI assistant completes finance, operations, ESG, and tax tasks — while keeping you in charge.

Turn data challenges into data opportunity

Elevate data management. Data isn't information until it's collected, normalized, and interpreted. AI transforms vast volumes of raw data into information, far surpassing the thresholds of traditional finance software.

Eliminate grunt work. No longer do you have to scour cells to find an error or parse through reports to answer to a question. The AI does it for you.

Expand analysis. Predictive modeling isn't just useful for forecasting. Extend AI's unparalleled efficiency and insights to the financial close, operational planning, supply chain, ESG, regulatory, and tax processes.

Experience the CCH Tagetik difference

AI-enabled CPM. Augment CPM processes with intelligent data management and analysis.

Stay in control. Our glass box approach allows you to decide the data to use and accept or reject the AI's work.

Digitalize finance. Empower a digitally-native workforce with advanced tech and smart working.

Future-prepared. Generative AI and NLP will continue to permeate CPM functionality.

Reporting & Analytics

AI Automapping.

Make data collection easy

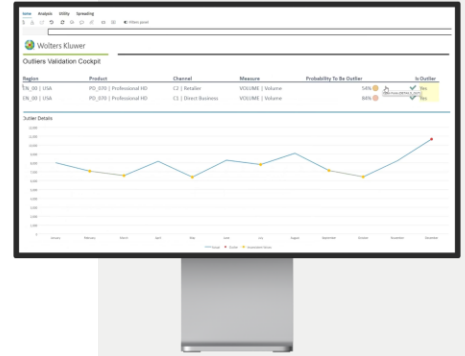

Our AI simplifies and speeds up mapping using your existing dimensionality. It intelligently gathers, maps, and reconciles data from disparate sources, in different languages, and industry-specific domains.

AI Anomaly detection.

Find outliers in a flash

Improve the quality of data entering budgeting, closing, and analysis processes. Our AI intelligently determines outliers and highlights the reasons for deviations. It gives you the power to quickly vet the outlier before processing further analysis or making decisions.

Predictive Planning.

Get explainable AI-based forecasts

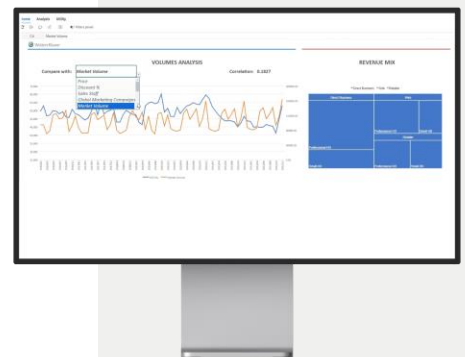

CCH Tagetik Predictive Intelligence is an out-of-the-box driver-based planning solution with the power to predict future performance — and how you can improve it. This solution improves forecast accuracy with ML-and-AI-based predictions and instant probabilistic plans. It also explains what drives its predictions so you can take action to improve results.

AI Driver-based Analysis.

Analyze more data faster

Enhance performance analysis. Our AI reads through enormous volumes of data — financial, non-financial, internal, and external — in seconds and identifies the drivers of performance.
