

Telecommunications

Billing and remitting these taxes and fees is a complex process. We understand that addressing communication tax and regulatory compliance can quickly drain your company's resources and requires specialized knowledge and experience. Our team of tax compliance professionals can help you maintain compliance, maximize incentives, and address tax burdens from pre- to post-launch and on, through every stage of growth.

How We Help

EisnerAmper has extensive experience working with communications companies ranging from start-ups to large national carriers, including ISPs, wireline (LEC, CLEC, and IXC), VoIP, and wireless and cable operators. Our team has helped with pre-launch services for carriers across the country, and we currently support dozens of carriers, assisting with licensing, registrations, and compliance. EisnerAmper provides comprehensive tax planning and compliance support for carriers in a variety of stages.

Tax compliance services that scale with your company.

Communication companies, including VoIP providers and cable companies, must master the complex world of taxes and fees imposed on communication services, such as:
