

HOUSE RULES OF THE COMMON MARKET LAW REVIEW (2024)

The Common Market Law Review is conscious of its position as the oldest specialized review in the field of European law, and of its avowed aim to promote academic discussion which goes across national boundaries. With this in mind, we ask our authors to make a special effort to acquaint themselves with the academic discussion on their particular topic in countries other than their home State. Only in this way are we able to offer our readers the highest level of intellectual and legal analysis, and to achieve real developments in a particular debate.

1. SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

- 1.1 Manuscripts should be submitted via the PeerEase system. Inquiries and proposals should be sent to the Managing Editor, Ms. Anna Krisztian at CMLRev@law.leidenuniv.nl. Authors are requested to submit material digitally (by e-mail, in Word), to use a minimum of computer codes, "styles", etc., and to remove automatic referencing codes.
- 1.2 Articles should preferably have 12,000-15,000 words including footnotes. Annotations should be around 8,000 words including footnotes.
- 1.3 Authors should provide confirmation that the article or annotation has not been published, nor is pending publication or under consideration elsewhere.
- 1.4 Articles may be accompanied by an abstract of no longer than 250 words. If accepted, published articles include an abstract of 150 words (8 lines). Keywords should also be listed.
- 1.5 In the absence of a declaration otherwise, co-authorship means that the authors assume joint responsibility for the whole text of the manuscript.
- 1.6 Book review correspondence: cmlrev-books@law.leidenuniv.nl
Books reviews should be 1-2 pages in length, and contain no footnotes.

3. SPECIFIC POINTS OF STYLE

3.1 Footnotes should be numbered sequentially in superscript in the text outside punctuation marks.

3.2 Use abbreviations in footnotes and in parentheses, e.g. Art. 8; 3 Dec. 1990; 4 Sept. 2016; para 45; A.G. The abbreviation "ECJ" is preferred for the Court of Justice, except if a specific emphasis is being laid on the Court of Justice of the European Union as a whole, or as one of the institutions, in which case CJEU.

3.3 Cross references: Where ECJ cases are referenced in several footnotes, please use the short case name and the case number in subsequent footnotes (e.g. Case C-360/09, Pfleiderer). For authored published works referred to more than once, use "author, op. cit. supra note x". For official documents, use: Report cited supra note x.

3.4 Capitalize: Advocate General, Article 95 EC, EU Treaties, Council, Commission, Member State, Directive 77/249, Regulation 170/83, State (when referring to a political entity).

3.5 Miscellaneous points:

Non-English words and phrases should be italicized, except common Latin abbreviations: cf., e.g., et seq., ibid., i.e., loc. cit., viz..

Z-spelling is used where both s and z are possible (e.g. organize, harmonization; but advertise, analyse, etc.)

In general, Oxford University Press House Style is followed.

Paragraphs should not be numbered. Sections with headings are preferred.

The terms case law, Advocate General, and Member State are not hyphenated.

Note the terms: third-country national, non-State, nation State

Numbers: Ten; fifteen; 26; five million; 3,578; 4.5; 6,000

3.6 Please give annotations an explanatory title. The second half of the title can consist of the (short) name of the case.

- 3.7 Useful subdivisions of annotations are:
- Introduction
 - Factual (and legal) background
 - Opinion of the Advocate General (as required)
 - Judgment of the Court
 - Analysis / Comment

For other questions of citation or style, authors should refer to the Managing Editor. The submission of manuscripts which accord with the House Style is appreciated by the Editors. The Editors reserve the right to request corrections to manuscripts.

4. COPYRIGHT AND OFFPRINTS

Kluwer Law International requests from its authors either a full transfer of copyright or an exclusive licence to publish. Authors will generally be requested to complete the publishers' form concerning grant of exclusive licence.

Authors of articles and annotations receive one copy of the issue in which the contribution appears and digital offprints. Authors of book reviews receive digital offprints of their review.
